Call for papers

Faculty of Education and Faculty of Philosophy, University of Warsaw invite submissions to the 6th ETHICS AND EDUCATION Conference, which will take place on November 17-19, 2023 in Warsaw, Poland

This year the conference is organized in a partnership with the Philosophy of Education Society of Poland, Philosophy of Education Society (USA), International Network of Philosophers of Education and the Taylor and Francis journal, Ethics & Education.

Ethics and Education is a biennial international conference organized by the Faculty of Education and the Faculty of Philosophy, the University of Warsaw. Launched in 2011, the Ethics and Education Conference is aimed as an arena for international debates for educationalists, philosophers, and all scholars interested in ethical aspects of education.

We would like to invite you to share your experience and research in ethical aspects of teaching and learning with colleagues from different countries. Organizers invite a limited number of speakers and take care to ensure that all discussions are held in a friendly and insightful atmosphere. We plan to publish conference papers with Warsaw University Press or with another highly recognized international publisher.

This year the keynote speakers are prof. Nicholas Burbules (University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign), prof. Zehavit Gross (Bar Ilan University), dr Naomi Hodgson (Edge Hill University), prof. Elizabeth Jackson (University of Hong Kong), dr Áine Mahon (University College Dublin), prof. Amy B. Shuffelton (Loyola University Chicago). We are still to extend the list of the keynote papers for this year.
